Thread: \(Newegg\) 50% off on many cables. \(Ethernet/Power/USB/etc\)

FrostedBirdz - April 26, 2017, 3:41 pm

Includes various cables such as Ethernet Cables from 0.5ft to 1000ft.

Also includes SATA Cables, USB Cables, Power Cables, HDMI, Fiber Optics, etc.

Pretty good deals on most such as 25ft CAT5e yellow Cable for $1.64 + $2.99 SH.

$25+ orders = free shipping.

/e Another note, the $25 for free shipping is before coupon. So after coupon, $12.50 = free shipping.

Code is: CBCMAR50

/e realized not everything is 50% off, but most of it is.

Let me know if this helped any of you out. I just grabbed quite a few cables from here for my router. I hope it helped some of you since usually cables are more expensive than $1 or so.

Newegg pisses me off.

I pay for Premier. I should be able to ship a $1.50 order for free.

Fuck you newegg.

Same, Sadly you'd have to raise the cart price after discount to $12.50 for free shipping.

Not horrible, but fairly annoying. I heard their customer service has been... more than questionable.

If you're considering buying these cables but have no immediate need for them, consider holding off. These are all items that go free after rebate quite often (watch Slickdeals if you're interested). I have a drawer filled solely with FAR Newegg cables.

I haven't ordered anything from newegg recently, but my last experience with them wasn't great. I don't buy from newegg unless they have the best pricing on something. Amazon is better for most things.

Yea, I just ordered a few 50ft cables, and 30ft cables for various things. Nothing really Important. That and a Power Extension Cable. I really don't like Newegg myself, but If you're already needing a few long cables, then this isn't too bad of a deal. $12.50 isn't enough for me to be too upset if it doesn't work out well.
