So I've been into comics and there cartoons since I was 2 when my dad would watch spider man with me on the tv and he got me really into comics I have around 3000 comics stored and I've read 80% of them. But I have friends who are like you guys and weeb out on some Anime and I just could never get into the stuff they where watching. It had subs and I would have to man hunt to torrent links ( remember this was 2009). But now with Netflix and crunchy roll and others I can stream. Im not against torrenting if you can PM me a link of full seasons.

God i been rambling. I wanna get into anime and manga to expand my love to the arts. And I need your help picking out a good anime for me to watch and fall in love with. I like comic like stuff and I loved Pokemon and yugioh as a kid since I was a hard core card player. Please help me. I want English dub and preferred streaming.

PS sorry about going into so much detail on my past I just wanted to give a reference to you guys for a good pick.

Thanks

I'm not a weeb. Weebs are disgusting.

But for starters, you need to watch Fullmetal Alchemist.

I agree with this, but make sure you watch Fullmetal Alchemist: Brotherhood as it's more up to date with the manga.
