Quote: During the construction of the Kurobe Dam, an ancient artifact was discovered, and so the United Nations Kurobe Research Institute was established. Intellectuals from all over the world gathered to study the object, and the children of those researchers attend Mt. Tate International Senior High School, including the institute head's daughter, Yukina Shirahane. In the summer of 2016, a lone samurai once again awakens.

Season(s): 1

Episode(s): 26

Genre(s): Action, Sci-Fi, Mecha

Currently on Episode 7. Somehow, it isn't as bad as you think it would be... Right now I'm enjoying it as it's a good distracting from slaying in Runescape, but I would be watching it with my full attention if I had to as well.

Ohai Aura-senpai, haven't seen you in ages.

And how does it compare to story wise and character something similar, such as Aldnoah.Zero? It seems to be a bit more high school oriented.

Thanks I'll put it on my plan to watch!

Aldnoah.Zero is a masterpiece in my book. I simply love it. I'm only on Episode 8, so it's hard to say, but yeah, it's a bit more high school oriented because the apocalypse isn't totally upon them so the "normal" life still continues. That's what I've seen so far. Characters are hilarious too.

Just finished it. It wasn't that bad, it's a good watch if you have time to spare for a 26 episodes long serie. I got hit by the feels a bit in the end as well, but maybe I'm just too emotional.

I would give it a good 7/10.

Lol, we both know you put it as 10/10 on MAL regardless ;) But nice, I might put it on my PTW but I'm still trying to clear through it atm
