Notorious Recruitment #Alpha

Turn your face to the sun and the shadows fall behind you.

Subforum Icon:

Group Userbar:

Requirements:

Recruitment for the Notorious group is officially opened once again.

We are accepting applications for a limited period of time.

The general requirements for this are as follows:

You have been a registered member of Hack Forums for at least 3 months.

You must not have any open and valid scam reports against you. If you get one whilst being in the group you will be removed.

You are active and can post on a regular basis. If you are not active in one way or another don't bother applying.

No trolling or flaming other members.

Don't break Group rules. Doing so will result in a swift and permanent removal from the group.

Your warning level should not be above 20% at the time of applying.

You must partake in group discussions. No set minimum post amount but know that I am watching your activity.

Applications must be posted in this thread.

If you meet the requirements above you may post your application in this thread.

We are looking for active members who contribute in one way or another to the forum or are willing to do so.

Recruitment Process:

The recruitment process currently has 3 different stages.

Stage 1

Stage one is applying to the group. This is pretty straight forward. Write up an application and post it on this thread.

If your application is accepted you will continue to stage 2 of the recruitment process.

Stage 2

Stage 2 is an interview. You will be interviewed by Vitani or TheChief.

In this interview you will be asked several questions.

You will be asked to tell something about yourself among other things.

If you complete this stage successfully you will continue to the final stage of the recruitment process.

Stage 3

Stage 3 is the most important stage.

You will be invited to the group and given the trial member status.

Over the span of 2 weeks we will see if you are active and/or contributing to/for the group.

At the end of the second week the group owner and leaders will decide if you completed stage 3 successfully and if you can stay in the group.

Application Format:

Note: This is just a template with information we'd like to see. We encourage you to add more (relative) information to it!

Talking

Learning Why do you want to join the group Notorious?:The reason I would like to join Notrious is because i have seen it around quite a bit and have noticed it recently. Ever since I heard the name I started to wonder about the group. As I learnt more about the group i became more intreged with it. The main reason I would like to join the group is because I would love to expand my knowledge in certain areas and I feel that Notorious would help me with this. What can you do for the group and what can the group do for you?:Honestly at this time and moment I cant extactly offer much for the group. I can be an active member who is friendly and eger to learn and expand my knowledge. I would post quilty posts and contribute to the Fourm as much as possible, Not only would I try be HQ and active I would also try help many other members. What sets you apart from others, i.e., why should we invite you?:Honestly what makes me different to others is what I can do, If I set my mind to something I am able to finish/complise it. If I want to learn something new,ill learn it. I strive for the best.

Thanks for reading, apperiacte it

Why do you want to join the group Notorious?:

I have never been in a group before and so would love this to be my first group. The groups graphics is really amazing. I'd love to be able to contribute to the group as well as learn new things from the members. Meeting new people in the group would also be great. I always try my best to make high quality posts and threads, and i'd love to have this userbar near my name while I do that ?

What can you do for the group and what can the group do for you?:

I will do my best to help the group in many ways.

I am a nice and easy guy to work with. I am a very active member. I will always contribute in anything the group is doing. I would love to help people with anything that they don't know and that I do. The group can do a lot for me, it would be an amazing experience to even just get the trail because I would know what it's like to be a part of a group. It would also allow me to meet new people and hopefully learn from them.

What sets you apart from others, i.e., why should we invite you? (Also link your contributions):

I think I am different from most others because I have a big willingness to learn, I love to learn new things and am willing to take the time to learn it and be patient. I like to talk about pretty much anything.

I am very active, I am on for at least 6 hours most days so I will be active in the subforum.

I don't really have many contributions yet.

I'm not sure whether this counts but here:

Marketing Why do you want to join the group Notorious?: I enjoy being a part of communities where I can meet new people, share my knowledge, learn from them, and network with likeminded people. Groups are a great way to do that, as long as they aren't a total shit-show (banders illuminati) What can you do for the group and what can the group do for you?: I have a lot to offer, whether its my business knowledge, business opportunities, group contributions, etc. I expect to see an active group that is actually trying to do something within the forum and not just lounge posting. What sets you apart from others, i.e., why should we invite you? (Also link your contributions): I do what I can to contribute to the forum, whether it be free giveaways or the sales of my methods in the marketplace. I may not be super post-active, but I'm always lurking and reading and thinking about ways that I can get involved. Also, not many people can say they own multiple registered businesses in the US at age 18 ?

I am also experienced in crypto currencies and I am able to say that I earned quite good from the latest rises in the market. I do also speak 3 languages (German, English and Italian)

Why do you want to join the group Notorious?: Notorious is one of the best and most HQ quality groups on HF currently with a lot of skilled and intresting members. This group would be the first group I am in which has a lot of members with the same intrests as me. I believe I would benefit a lot from this group in improving my knowledge and also would I be able to share my knowledge to members who could actually benefit from this. What can you do for the group and what can the group do for you?:As stated before the group will help me to earn even more experience and also maybe show me other thinks I might be intrested. On the other hand I could do the same for the group I might not be as skilled as some others in the group in certain areas but I am willing to learn and sure that I can contribute in some way. What sets you apart from others, i.e., why should we invite you? (Also link your contributions):What makes me diffrent to others is that I am not just intrested in one or two topics were I am good at. I got a very high general knowledge and believe I can contribute to the group on nearly every thread. Also my Skillset is not based around one certain category the areas differentiate a lot so my over all understanding is better.

Why do you want to join the group Notorious?: I would like to be apart of Notorious, as I believe that I could be an asset in regard to teaching and mentoring. Whether it be about crypto currency or online money making in general, I always have knowledge to offer. As well as this, from what it seems, notorious is the only group I am interested in joining, mostly due to the people I see involved in it, coming across as 'mature' compared to those apart of other groups. The rest of the groups from what I have seen are not my cup of tea and don't suite my values.

What can you do for the group and what can the group do for you?: I am open to contributing any knowledge that is asked of me. Taking part in creating group tuts, group help desks, and so forth.

I also host giveaways pretty often, and would be fine with holding them under the group name to improve our reputation as a whole.

What sets you apart from others, i.e., why should we invite you? (Also link your contributions): I believe I am a strong character in regard to being honest & knowledgable. You won't catch me sucking up to anyone, power on this forum does not mean a whole lot to me, which is quite rare compared to what you see some people do for reputation or recognition here.

A couple of my contributions are below, though keep in mind that majority of my contribution is via the Crypto Currency section. I am there daily, and over 1000 of my posts are in that section.

Slimy - May 7, 2017, 7:12 am

Name:Slimy Profile Link:<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1852852> Age:18

Country and Time Zone:England, GMT Your skills:Information and Communication Technology Knowledge (3 Years of College studying ICT and Computer Science w/ Independent Research on different areas within the computing space)

Great Problem Solving skills due to being naturally analytical, logical and methodical.

3 Years Experience with Gaming servers, in terms of: Creating, Managing and Adminstrating them
Programming with Visual Basic / C#

Avid Learner

Ability to Teach

Socialable with others through threads, posts and VoIP programs (e.g. Discord, Teamspeak)

Why do you want to join the group Notorious?:I want to join Notorious because, to me, it is truly a notorious group. A group of such reputation would be an actual honour to be a part of, and serve under their name (e.g. Providing useful and fulfilling threads to the HF community under the Notorious name). I feel like I would be able to provide multiple succesful contributions to your group, in terms of: Informative threads, helping other (group) members out, and giveaways. If I were a part of Notorious, I would be an overly-active member because of my nature to contribute and socialise with others within your group. Creating threads and responding to others through posts is something I enjoy doing, due to the social-aspect. This is what makes me an active member of the forum, and possibly of your group too!

If I were a member of Notorious, I would want to engage others and help them learn something from me. I have tons of experiences and knowledge due to things like managing gaming servers and studying, that I could teach other Notorious members, or HF members under the Notorious name. It is in my nature to help others succeed, and I can do this by providing my existing skills, talents and knowledge.

Apart from being a member that contributes a lot, I want to be a member of your group, Notorious, because of the groups reputation and overall quality. This is because, I consider myself a high quality member, and that is what I see in Notorious - A high quality group. Combining our individual qualities, I can use my indepth knowledge and social aspect to set a great appearance and better the reputation of the Notorious group under my name and your banner.

What can you do for the group and what can the group do for you?:I have touched on this in my previous point, however I will explain it here again.

I will a member who will contribute alot whilst being of very high quality throughout all my threads and posts. These threads could be under your Notorious banner, where I share my indepth knowledge to teach other Notorious members or even the HF community. This would strengthen the Notorious reputation and brand, as I would be providing a fulfilling and sucessful threads under your banner to the community and group. This is whilst being an active and respected member of your group within the group's section.

In addition, I have a lot of experiences with game servers. For example: I created and managed servers for games such as Minecraft and Garry's Mod. By having these experiences, I strengthened my ability to be independant as I had to research about different coding methods and elements to fix coding errors and create my own addons.

If Notorious ever wants to open a gaming-server, I could help in the creation and managment of it, due to these experiences and knowledge I have gained from them. Even if it's for a game I haven't managed, being independant and great at problem solving, I could do it!

What sets you apart from others, i.e., why should we invite you? (Also link your contributions): Having actual experiences, knowledge and talents are what sets me apart from others. I could have not gone to college and tried finding a job, however I wanted to better myself and broaden my knowledge for ICT. I have gained two qualifications because of this, and it has improved me as an individual. This has gave me actual knowledge with physical certificates to back this up. I don't think other people who claim to have this knowledge, will have this - unlike me.

This knowledge and expertise is something I can contribute to Notorious, or to the HackForum's community under the Notorious name and banner. Sharing this knowledge to help others become knowledgable would be an indepth, useful and high quality contribution to provide.
