Thread: Ice Poseidon airplane bomb thread FULL CALL released, caller voice revealed

Jire - April 28, 2017, 9:10 pm

In case anybody is out of loop, wildly popular Twitch streamer Ice_Poseidon was banned today, likely due to yesterday's airplane SWAT. This is the full call recorded, with modified voice but I was able to pick out a few places unedited at 5:32 and 7:33.

I really hope this ban doesn't stick. If I'm not mistaken his next ban(this ban) would result in a perma ban on his twitch account.

Has this kid been caught by the authorities yet?

Silver Fang - April 28, 2017, 9:25 pm

Oh, the cringe when his real voice comes on.

Why would Ice/Paul be banned by this? He didn't do anything wrong...

Ice knows his community is toxic as fuck and continues to stream in places like this. I'm not blaming him of course because he has no responsibility for this happening. At least the flight was able to leave and the airline offered Ice a free flight the next day.

Welcome to the 21st century.

Why do people waste their time doing things like this? Do they really think they won't get caught. It's so immature and ignorant I can't believe it.
