Let me know if you need a real vouch copy.

Thanks

EDIT: Suprisely got a vouch copy.
Will update later.

After reading all this is my conclusion:

Quality of the document : 6/10

All methods below do in fact earn you money and the methods can't get saturated. This E-book on how to make money is verified by me.

First Method: (4/10)

Very public method. U might not know the website itself but the method is not something special.

Second Method: (6/10)

This method is basic and can definitely help beginners with a lot of money to invest to make some nice profit. (public method)

Third Method: (7/10)

Kinda original method, although I have seen this before. Gives examples that help you so you basically only have to search for companies.

Originality : 5/10

Basic knowledge, still works.

Practicality : 8/10

Every chapter is well explained, you will have no problem to putting it into practice. There are no pictures added that have a functional purpose.

GLWS ?

I'd Like a vouch copy if possible

I received an copy of this E-book and I got to say it's pretty simple and easy to use.

Everything is well constructed.

Grammer- 10/10

Vouch for this

eHate - April 30, 2017, 12:27 pm

Thank you all for the honest and fair reviews, ONCE AGAIN this book is made with HIGH QUALITY and explains how you can make REAL MONEY starting right now. This will teach you how to be an expert at the described methods, as one vouch said the first method is a public method, however you may not know the particular website or method, I go into great detail to insure that YOU the purchaser WILL MAKE YOUR MONEY BACK at least 10x! For 11$ you can not afford to miss these money making methods!

Exactly, and I'm actually glad you kinda sarcastically mentioned that! There are so many low quality ebooks for sale on these forums promising ridiculous things and then you get a bunch of new folks buying it expecting great things and they open the book and get fucked. Because it's trash. I'm trying to make a small but passionate impact on that by providing a low cost book that will honestly and with integrity help both New comers and seasoned vets of these forums with producing a steady flow of earnings from home. I'm not promising thousands of bucks a day, anyone who does is horse shitting newbies, you and I both know that. This is, however, something that everyone can easily make a few hundred dollars a week that they can then spend on their friends, going out to eat, buying their girlfriend or boyfriend or LGBT neighbor a hotdog or tampon.

Thanks for the post and hopefully you too will check it out and get a little extra cash for yourself. I honestly want any and everyone to be able to have financial freedom, I've been blessed in many ways, and this is just something that can help relieve some of that stress by putting some money in people's pockets.

If you guys are still skeptical it's totally understandable. This is why I will now be offering a guarantee, if you do this, and can't make a measly 10$ in your first week you'll get a full refund. No questions asked. Stipulation: You must provide a screenshot showing that you at least tried method 1 and failed.

Here's some fun facts from this week boys and gals:

Millimeter Peter - May 3, 2017, 10:29 pm

Hey OP! Do you think this is possible? Could I have the method and once I get my earnings, I will pay you $30.

How does this sound? ?

Interesting e-book. There are methods I did not even know exist. Those methods take some time to apply but I can see why OP is confident about selling the method. I personally did not know those methods so I cannot speak for everyone.

For $11, you get what you pay for. Not sure how OP made like $100 with it but with his support, I guess it is possible to do it.

I'll tell you exactly how right here. Do method 1 a few times your first day, then if you'd like, do it a few time the days following. Collect your paycheck, and then do method 2 for more profit. Then in your spare time between making money from that, use the 3rd method to pick up extra cash when possible. All the while you may use the bonus method once a day at a small amount to get more money. And that's exactly how I made 300$ in 3 days now, boss ?

Thanks for the review, I bet you were surprised to actually get that loaner copy ?

Tbh I'm just tired of low quality users putting out shitty af books on "money" when they don't know shit about money IRL and then give all authors a bad name. I wrote a book IRL about money and it's recently published, but folks around here have a bad habbit of writing shit books for insane prices.

I wanna change that. :)

We all do haha! The thing about this is now that you know the methods: I use method 1 several times daily now, in combination with the bonus method sporadically throughout the day to pickup an extra 30 for 40$ and number 3 occasionally and I'm making more money by sitting at home masterbating than I was working at Best buy ???

Low-key I just want everyone who is chill with me to make money and be happy

Honest review

First off I wanna start off by saying that I have nothing to gain about lying about an $11 dollar guide and in any hopes of someone being ripped off for $11 dollars. With that being said I purchased this guide yesterday and the methods in the guide are absolutely clever and will 100% work if you want to make money.. no these methods aren't anything that are to much out of reach and they will not make you feel inclined that they are impossible to get done! But methods in here are doable with some effort put in.. no this guide isn't anything with you buying an ebook to sell ebooks! I have purchased guides worth way more then this that are way useless then this guide and honestly he should be charging $40 plus! The first method is the best because you get paid weekly and it is a steady stream of income if you put your mind to it and just do it! No it doesn't include anything with selling things to people and seeking leads! Method 1 is like a job and is very controlled and could be done by anyone motivated.. with that being said I would say this guide is an amazingly working guide and highly worth your purchase

Ladies and gentlemen from here on out I'll be giving small words of encouragement similar to what you find in my book. To start things off I wanted to let you all know that I am a user who is obligatory towards my goals in life. In life we all have goals, however no matter how unique and independent our individual goals may be, we usually have one particular goal that almost all human beings as a species want, however as humans we often put other humans needs, feelings, or goals in the dirt because as humans we are self loving creatures. Now with that being said, that goal that we have in common is success. No matter how big or small your ideas of success are, whether it be to make a few hundred extra bucks a month or to make a few hundred thousand extra bucks, you need to remember two things. For one, these goals ARE ACHIEVABLE, and secondly the goal of success begins with an idea. It's this idea of what we define success as that determines the path we take in our lives to reach, or attempt to reach, these goals. Many people simply put it too far out of reach to be something that is real to them, but if you start with something simple and achievable to you right now in your present situation, then you've taken the first step towards the idea of success. All of my customers have proven to be the people that wish to market themselves to the world as a person with the idea of success rooted in their minds, I'm proud to say I've been able to help them in some way, other than just by them reading my book, and that's the kind of people who buy my book. Not your average HF Joe who scrolls through looking for something to hate on, no these customers are people who are goal driven, have a positive, forward thinking mindset, and because of that they will achieve their own ideas of success. Which makes me happy because that's exactly who I want to reach with this. You may think I'm just another dude, which I am, however what I am not is a con artist, and I assure you that the only problem you are going to have with my book, is that you don't have more time in the day to make more money. Money is addicting and I want to help everyone get started towards their own ideas of success. That's why I'm doing things like editing this book whenever I feel the need and pushing out updates, or working on publishing stories in real life as well as my racing and entertainment careers. Success doesn't come easy, or free, it takes a lot out of you, but if you have what it takes then I'm here to help.

Have a good one everyone.

Good evening everyone! I got a really nice message after my last post from a member here, I thought I'd share it with you below.

<https://i.imgur.com/hwgXKaF.png>

I just wanted to say that if there is anything I can gain from my book, from my posts, or from my time here on this planet as short or long as it may be, it's to inspire people and help them achieve their goals, both financially and personally. I've updated the book with much more information and templates as well as including some good information on motivation and your goals. I hope this helps you folks to realize that you do NOT have to settle in your life, if you want a new Porsche then work hard and go out and buy it. If you think your job pays too little, then study hard and change it. If you think you're college education is out of reach or costs too much, guess what, there are government aid programs, military education tuition programs, and go to community college and get yourself a placement test and start learning what you don't know. Sometimes you may slip back a little bit but no matter what, no matter what! Remember that you ALWAYS have the option to keep moving up in the world.

I feel like it's going great! It was just updated the other day supplying everything you could ever want for these methods included inside and added a new method to take the place of one which was no longer a proper working one in some cases. Feel free to decide any time my dude, of course you can add my Skype too for support afterwards!

Take care!

Here's today's post fellow thread patrons, hope you enjoy and it helps you in some way:

Doing the right thing is always the right thing. In life whether you believe in karma or your chosen God is up to you, but when it comes to doing the right thing it doesn't matter how big or small that thing is; whether it be a micro thing like choosing to pick the piece of trash up from the floor or something bigger like choosing to not date that girl that your buddy loves or not acquire that account from your business proposal, it all boils down to when you're in your death bed sick and dying how you're going to feel about your life. Every right thing you do adds up to that total sum and counts as an extra mark of good and when you can lie there and know you've lived a good life is when you've made the ultimate investment and you've got the ultimate pay off. Nobody can control that investment but you and life will throw you all sorts of tests and opportunities to improve that investments value and it's what you do in those opportunities that determine the overall net worth. When you've made good decisions like that, it's the same feeling as working out hard for a day, a week, a month. It's satisfying and good, knowing you've done something good.

Now the kicker for the threads sake, I too am trying to do something good, giving real advice and true motivation to anyone who wants it. This is why a good decision on your life's journey is to pass up those 30-70$ books promising you thousands with zero customer support. Mine is 11$, the same cost as that fast food run you almost made, instead of making that decision make this one, buy this book, make money from it, learn some things, progress your future, add a new friend to your repertoire, and tally it on the grand score card of your life.

Have a good one folks.

Yes sir it is. Because if you do method one ONE time then you'll have made 10$ so you literally have to try not to do the methods to not be able to make money haha
