He closed the chargeback. Dispute resolved.

User in question: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2777316> (Threshold)

His email(s): dr.agosmatei0@gmail.com , dragos.matei0@gmail.com

His Skype Account: matei.dragos71

Proof that it is his Skype Account:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

The text he used in the PayPal dispute:

"This crypter isn't working properly as the encrypted file is broken and cannot be launched. And just recently I found out that selling this kind of stuff is illegal and I don't want to be affiliated with any of that so I want a full refund."

If someone wants to help me winning the dispute I would be happy :)

dont think there is anything you can do. like with game cheats paypal just give the costumer right. at least in my experience.

sad but true.

but it's not illegal? so just try and proof he got the product.

he needs help after the charge back wtf

Prawnster - May 1, 2017, 5:34 am

Just call PayPal and explain he purchased it and the product was delivered and now he lying as he broke your ToS or some shit - Just a suggestion.

Either way, he's a bit of a mug for scamming for $25.

Goodluck getting this fixed.
