Thread: S+ in every placement match with 10 wins, ends up in Bronze V

Reporter - May 1, 2017, 7:03 pm

Last season I had lowest rank at EUW Bronze V -100 LP (Dodging beyond bronze V 0lp)

Still suprised to see me after 10 wins going S+ being placed in Bronze V.

Wonder if I should go for -1000 LP this season

fwiw ranks/stats don't mean anything for MMR/LP gains

Lol it's normal , what was your last season rank ? If you were bronze V last season it's normal you will be bronze V the new one since you can't exceed your last season rank ^^

I would've expected you get at least Bronze 2 or 3...

Kinda weird how the ranking system works now.

Well to be fair I did have lowest rank EUW so I shouldn't really had expected a much better rank, but I did due to wins + Always S+.

Not sure what I should do if I should boost this account to high rank or continue to dodge and get -1000LP this season ?

What's so fun in bringing your account down to -1000lp?

If you can't be ranked #1 on top, Why not be Ranked #1 on being the worst?

Well when you're bottlenecked by the ranking system no matter how good you do, you've got to strive for SOME sort of goal ?

I won 8 of my 10 ranked games and got placed in bronze 5, shits so dumb

Well if you can't climb out then it might be the place to be ?
