Thread: Does anyone enjoy the game?

Slump God - May 3, 2017, 7:46 pm

Does anyone still enjoy this game or everyone stopped playing? I personally kept playing but I feel like most people stopped

1700block - May 4, 2017, 2:09 pm

I haven't played since early August 2016. I wish the hype was still there but I lost interest after I realized a bunch of people were using the coords and stuff to get the rare pokemon.

kosmatico - May 4, 2017, 2:53 pm

i just play it sometimes, you know trying not to be competitive, but playing for fun.

Tohka - May 4, 2017, 2:54 pm

Played it for a while then started to bot for money.

xValue - May 4, 2017, 2:56 pm

i occasionally open the app just to get ahead of a few of my friends who still play, but besides that not really, no.

OGOObtain - May 14, 2017, 6:19 am

This game is dead asf. No one I know really plays it anymore.

Cooligan - May 14, 2017, 10:18 am

Not nearly as much as I used to but I caught a Diddo like 3 or 4 weeks ago and got pretty pumped because of it so I might get back into it on the drives to my jobs everyday because sometimes they can be hours away so I'll just fill the time playing pogo.

Holy shit that was the definition of a run on sentence.

Ersavitzs - May 27, 2017, 6:31 pm

I stopped playing months ago

I usually play when I am exercising and walking. Still entertains me atleast.

FNF3TD - May 29, 2017, 5:01 am

I still open it when traveling, but I don't go out and play that much.

Yandere - May 29, 2017, 5:06 am

I haven't played it in awhile since I don't enjoy it nearly as much as I used to but with summer coming up I think I'll get back into it since the weather will be nice.

Rotely - May 29, 2017, 2:35 pm

It's a dead game now man .

AnOrdinaryGuy - May 29, 2017, 3:07 pm

Well probably I'm going to open the game again in summer. Just dominate my area and hatch some eggs with friends. But if niantic doesn't bother doing a significant update I can't see any further improvement.

Current rumor is that legends will be released during the summer. They're doing a lot of work to stop spoofers right now.

I'm hoping for trading / battling.

AnOrdinaryGuy - May 30, 2017, 4:49 am

Honestly niantic definitely made the most stupid "movements" of most companies. I don't know what they are thinking but damn if a company wants customers and users for it's games then just try keep the game interesting. I can't understand why the only updates they do right now is only for bug fixes and traditional Chinese language addition. The trading feature was going to be live back to November 2016.

I enjoy raiding gyms with my bots and pissing off local mystic players. but thats it

Regulus - May 30, 2017, 12:12 pm

It was fun when the hype was on.

Then it died and I don't like it anymore.

pabst - June 1, 2017, 2:44 am

I used to play it over the summer for a few months but got bored of it. I havent played it or even checked it out since then. It seems there are still people who do play it but I dont know any.

Portugal - June 2, 2017, 9:47 am

The winter season killed the game in my area.

rudel777 - June 7, 2017, 12:40 am

i still play for fun like this game

Blakerebelrolls - June 7, 2017, 3:22 pm

When it was first released i've never wasted more than 5 minutes playing on it, then the hype died for everyone and now no one in my area is still playing it.
