Thread: Animal Rescue Organization

ArtMachine - May 4, 2017, 3:43 am

Greetings,

I founded an animal rescue initiative called "Almighty Adoption Center" last year but it wasn't really active.

In the last two months, I have started to work more on it and made it active.

Now, we have successfully got a lot of homeless dogs adopted and rescued.

Wanted to know what you think of the site,

<http://www.almightycenter.org/>

<https://www.facebook.com/almightycenter/>

If you'd like to help me, you can!

I need a Graphic designer to help me with designing flyers, post designs and etc.

I need someone who can write really well to manage the FB page and blog.

I need someone who can spread the word and try to get in some donations for the rescues.

And in many more ways. Please let me know if you can help :)

Beautiful idea, even better work! Hope you'll find homes for many pets.

i gotta admit, i can watch these conversations about animal rescues and similiar topics with straight face and not feel a thing..as long as i don`t enter the link and see how low human beign can fall and do something like that to poor animal, i am so full of rage and anger, if i ever saw anyone abuse some animal (thank God i didn`t) i think i wouldn`t be able to control myself, i would pick closest thing to me and beat him/her until they wouldn`t be able to walk on their own .(i just hope i would stop there).. For you my friend, much respect!

For you my friend, much respect!Yeah. I feel disgusted at humans when an animal is being abused by a human for no reason.

I've seen a lot of abuse cases.

Even day before yesterday, I rescued a badly abused stray puppy. He was purposefully beaten and something ran over him too. In the result, he won't be able to walk for his entire life.

Nothing but respect for you and your cause, people who abuse or neglect animals are truly pieces of shit.

I also might be able to help with getting contributions for the cause.
