If someone came out as a Lizard Person on the news tonight... Who do you think would make you say "That makes a lot of sense now..."

It would have to be Alex Jones.

Kanye West.

or Alex Jokes, I mean Jones... also known as Bill Hicks. Allegedly.

Funny but not true. He is an actor that is all, a so called shill.

But enough of him, he doesn't deserve to be named. You could call him a big liar, that's all.

Or a very bad actor who didn't make it to Hollywood, so he had to find a way to put bread on the table and that way was lying and spreading disinformation on the world-wide-web.

To be honest I am not sure who I would name.. I'm sure there would be a bunch though.

Edit: I just now realized your question OP. My bad... I'll come back with an answer!
