Thread: [Velocity Theme \[11 Controls\]\[GDI+\]](#)

VmX5 - May 4, 2017, 7:09 pm

Hey guys, It's that time again : Here's another release, This is my "first" real theme other than my atrocious "Flatish" Theme which was utter trash. I mean the code and organization for this one is also trash but not as trash. I was going to wait until some more controls were done but due to hopefully a new job soon I just thought I'd post it now.

Anyways here I present to you : Velocity.

*Textbox colours are a visual glitch, textboxes are not apart of the theme.

List of Controls available :

VelocityButton

- TextAlign

VelocityCheckBox

- Checked

VelocityRadioButton

- Checked

VelocityTitle

- Text

VelocitySplitter

- Offset

VelocityAlert

- xCursorChange - Display click cursor when hovered over Exit button
- ShowExit - Hides/Shows "X" Exit button
- ShowImage - Shows/Hides Image you choose (Box is 64x64)
- Image - The Image in the box
- Event : XClicked, you can decide to what to do when "X" is clicked like hide it.

VelocityTag

- Border

VelocityProgressbar

- Min, Max, Val
- ShowPercentage

VelocityTabControl
- TextAlign

VelocityTag
- Border

VelocityToggle
- Checked

In order to "exit" the alert control when "X" is pressed open the default event for it which should be "XClicked" and enter

PHP Code

<?php

VelocityAlert#.Visible = False

Visual Freedom - May 5, 2017, 1:14 am

Very clean theme. Thank you for contributing such a nice theme for free VmX5.

Narwin - May 5, 2017, 4:31 am

The theme looks good, multi Backcolor of those Textboxes are features or bugs ? you must mix TextBox child control Backcolor with it's parent control's Backcolor, you can't highly depend code converters to provide the C# or VB version, btw you can add border to selected Tabcontrol and add more controls.

Best Regards.

Thanks for the suggestions, the textboxes aren't apart of the theme. The ones in the images are a textbox in a panel i had an issue with the border color yesterday for some reason and I just wanted to push this out before i went to sleep. And I'm not fluent in C# so just used a converter.

Thanks for comments and suggestions guys!

How to use this theme?

Please advise.

Add a class file to your project and paste the code inside the file. Debug the project. And the controls should appear in your toolbox.

Add new class to project & delete the contents of that class & add code of this theme to that class...

compile & you will get all these controls in your control toolbox...
