Thread: Have you ever been neg repped for not giving a vouch copy?

SirAndrew - May 5, 2017, 5:21 am

New to this forum and the way people are, but is it common practice for people to neg rep for not giving vouch copies of methods away? Or should I report it to staff?

There is no need to whine about reputation, it's just an opinion on you. The only way you're able to report the reputation you're given is if it doesn't abide by the reputation guidelines which I am not so familiar with but I came across it whilst reading the help documents. I'm sure that someone will quote me on this and link you to the documents. You'll probably get some hate for posting this.

People are allowed to give any rep they want.

Some people are just salty that they cannot get a method for free (You had already given out the 2 vouch copies I see in the thread).

It's not an opinion by asking

"Can i get a vouch copy", and if you get replied "no" you leave a -rep because you didn't get something for free.

I'm not whining, I just wanted to know if it was common practice, and if I get hate for this then I know I've joined the wrong community. It's just that someone has neg repped for a lack of vouch copy and that has stopped me from being able to provide services in the market place now, it's just sheer maliciousness.

Thanks Reporter and - Sam - for your feedback, that's helpful and I really appreciate it! Also many thanks for the reps, that wasn't my intention by this post but it means a lot and I'll be sure to provide good services to everyone!

You will encounter people who will give you reps because there is not much you can do about it since you aren't uber yourself.

You are still able to sell any services you want ?

Quote:What is the reputation system used for?

For the most part, it is just a place for users to give their opinions on a member. However, if the overall number of reputation points is negative, it does affect a member's eligibility to apply for ub3r and their ability to post in certain sections of the site such as the Marketplace.

That's it. Welcome to HF!

Just fuck him and move on OP. Don't ask him to remove it.

bunny.tar.gz - May 5, 2017, 5:53 am

OP people can tell when it's not legit rep... They tend to care more about checking for rep that involves transactions... Negative rep has to have a scam report link AFAIK.

The kid seems to be a poor fuck who just became UB3R recently and wants to use his almighty UB3R powers on people who can't rep back:

By looking at his use of "XD" you can see how immature he is as well.

That negative reputation "Good luck with your kfc method" doesn't break any reputation policies. So you can't.

Anyway, I see there is a spontaneous recovery. Good for you OP. Ignore such people.
