Thread: French \(canadian\) native speaker? Make \$60 USD in 4 hours

(I AM NOT SELLING, OR PROMOTING ANY SERVICE OF MINE HERE, I AM NOT GIVING ANY REFERRAL LINK OUT, I AM JUST HELPING PEOPLE OUT HERE)

If you're a french canadian native speaker and you're interested in making money registering short voice clips on your phone (shit like what people randomly search on Google), then go here:

http://datacollection_fr-CA.register-lionbridge.com

This only works for french canadian native speakers. You can be paid $60 USD in PayPal, or a $80 Amazon.ca gift card/Starbucks gift card. Your choice.

I'm sharing this because my brother told me about it and it's easy money. It's going to take you 4 hours, you can do one hour every day. It can take less than 4 hours, it's just an estimate.

Logically, $60 usd is $82 CAD which is $20.5 per hour, which is great for just one hour per day.

Again, I am NOT advertising anything here, I'm just trying to help out fellow french canadian speakers. I don't benefit anything from this, I'm also doing this and I've recorded 1000 voice lines in two days.

Well, it only really works out if you speak french. You don't need the heavy Quebec accent, either.
