If you want to key G2a. if you want a premade account to do ranked Playerauctions.

I'd honestly just pay the $60 from blizzard. That way you won't be scammed and you'll have a legitimate copy.

If you create a battle.net account and select Argentina you are able to buy the game for around $23 (I believe you now need to use a vpn)

You can find some cheap used accounts on here, however, there is always the risk of being scammed. I suggest using something like G2A.
