Forget all the pussy shit everyone is saying, a really gory anime is something like this:

Most psychological animes with action would have a lot of blood like Mirai Nikki, Elfen Lied, Tokyo Ghoul, (even Attack on Titan if you could see how its a psychological anime)

That last one is the most brutal and gore-infested anime I have ever seen. It was so bloody that it was banned in Japan. OP, if you can handle extreme gore, try Boku no Pico.

Gantz is pretty damn good. They released a CGI movie on Netflix called Gantz:0 that is equally amazing.

If you haven't seen it yet, try Mirai Nikki (The Future Diary)
