Thread: Cover Design

Mister Slyther - May 7, 2017, 10:18 am

I got final deadlines/hand-in for all this years design work in 5 days (Friday).

I was asked to design a 500 word project evaluation for the 10 week project I had.

This is the cover design for it. it's going to be a booklet A5 sized and nicely printed.

Software being used: Adobe Indesign Cs6

it looks very nice and clean, i would add more more colours

Looks nice and clean indeed just would have gone but something with collors instead of black & white only, atleast at some gray into it somewhere.

I really think that gray or maybe even something red can improve the design overall.

Thanks all, the reason why it is only two colors, because in negotiation there is only 'yes' and 'no'.

2 colors, 2 options in negotiation, which are yes and no. That is why I only used black and white :)

Nothing is black and white, narrow mindset imo.

More Colors defiantly but looks good overall. Its probably very difficult doing GFX especially with it looking like its 3D and everything. Nice work

It looks great and clean; I don't really have any complaints. The font choice fits well.

Isn't the point of negotiation compromise though?

Very clean man

You got my sale haha

sp4ceman - May 29, 2017, 7:21 pm

I really like the simplicity of it, but I also think it would look really nice with some colour, yet still keeping everything 2d.

Good work man keep it up :D
