You need to be UB3R to create threads in the Premium Sellers Section.

You could also get an UB3R to become your partner and create the thread for you.

Ur account needs to be 90 days old or 180 not sure which before you can apply for Ub3r. Harder than it seems.

Thought they had to own the shop right? Safest bet is to do the secondary seller area and make your way up to become an Uber.

How exactly do you plan on selling 8 ball pool coins? The only way is sell accounts with coins on them if you transfer coins you will get auto banned.
