Alright so a normal day right? the usual. i get a add from this guy called yada.

1. <http://prntscr.com/f5mkls>

then he request me to bump one of his "friends" threads, and 5 star

2. <http://prntscr.com/f5mkqp>

Then, i contemplate and think its not allowed to do so. so i didnt answer him or bump

<http://prntscr.com/f5ml2y>

Then he hits me up today, and i tell him no. and he starts being all disrespectful etc

<http://prntscr.com/f5mlfu>

and i decide to stop responding

<http://prntscr.com/f5mlot>

I personally think its his account but incase he gets reported he gonna claim its his friend etc etc

It's kinda funny how he thinks "ugly boy" is an insult. It's not like you're trying to smash.

Like I asked on the last thread, what are you alerting the community of? Also, I dont see any actual proof, offsite and how do you know its him and not someone impersonating him?
