Because you have to be upgraded an ub3r member in order to list in the non-free accounts section. Good luck trying to get ub3r.

If you follow the steps of 90% of the other users on here, getting 250 posts can be done within in day. Many users shit posted on the daily when the new clover awards or whatever they're called came out.

I think you misunderstand Ub3r requirements. The 250 posts is just one requirement just to apply. I suggest you read our Help Docs.
