What the mind can conceive, it can achieve.

Welcome to The Orders official recruitment page

The Order is a friendly faced discussion group. We take pride in our popular lounges and many threads which are posted by our family like group members. We consider ourselves to be a tight-knit community.

We enjoy hearing what you have to discuss and are always open to group members expressing themselves.

Recruitment will not be open for to long so now is the chance to get in!
After recruitment closes the buy-in thread will be your only option.

Just like any other group we also have some set rules just to make sure everything is running smoothly.

These rules are...

- You must post in 48/72-hour Activity Check threads. These will be posted randomly so you must be active. They may even be disguised as common threads.
- General inactivity will get you kicked.
- Don't be a ghost within the group. You must actively participate within the group sub-forums, not just the lounge. Make sure to engage in other conversations and make yourself known.
- Leaders have the right to kick you anytime.
- Be friendly & respectful to all members. Flaming & arguments wont be tolerated. Debates are fine.

Applying is simple. PM me directly telling me about yourself and why you would like to join the group.

As I am hosting this recruitment thread I will be responsible for accepting and denying group members. Please give me 24/48 hours to reply to you.

After recruitment I will close this thread.

Anyone applying after recruitment will be ignored.

If you do not get accepted then you will have to apply when recruitment opens again.

Fake applications will be ignored.

Good luck to everyone applying, we hope to see some new friendly faces shortly!

Private messaged you with an application. I doubt it'll get a good response but it was worth a shot.
Good luck to all applicants.

Most definitely my favorite group. EVERYONE is super cool and we don't deal with fuck heads. If you're rude, you're kicked. Also Riyuu knows how to trick people and see if they are active;).
Definitely worth a join!
