Make sure and take care of your mom even if you don't have the best relationship with her.

SocialAgency - May 14, 2017, 8:33 am

I gave her a bracelet and told her she's the best mom in the world.

Mission accomplished.

Unravel - May 14, 2017, 9:27 am

Yeah man it's not mothers day here ?

bandors - May 14, 2017, 9:28 am

I called my moms thanks for reminding me :33

Eagerkid - May 14, 2017, 9:29 am

Came and visited my mom today, I think she liked the surprise

I find it very weird Mother's Day in the US is in May. Mother's day has always been in March for me.

Any woman can give birth. Being a mother is something of honor that's been bastardized. So, Happy Mother's Day to good mothers who love their kids and don't treat them like shit.

Happy Mother's Day!

You should surprise your mom by bringing back Infamous! I, err, I mean she would love that!

Saltpeter - May 14, 2017, 9:40 am

I bought her something and I'll be seeing her a bit later.

Especially agree with that last portion OP.

I'm confused, where are you guys from? I swear Mother's Day was a couple of months ago.

It isn't mother's day in my country but I gave her a call this morning anyway.

Compulsive - May 14, 2017, 10:10 am

Yeah I called your mom thanks for reminding me.

Cammy - May 14, 2017, 10:10 am

I bought my mother a computer mouse since she can't stand the touchpad on her new laptop and she already paid a lot of money to fix her backyard which she got screwed over with so she didn't want to spend even more on the mouse

Amethyst_ - May 14, 2017, 11:56 am

Went out and ate pizza, talked with her.
