DeepStateDiary - May 21, 2017, 5:08 pm

Although he prefaced our transaction with the likelihood of him falling asleep soon, I sent money the same minute in which he stated that, and he then stopped responding after I had sent my prime gifts, and then briefly went away on skype, then came back online, but isn't responding. I'm not pointing fingers, I see his schedule is much different than mine, so I can't blame him, but just a tad off putting.

Update; After staying up all night I had eventually caught him in the morning (where he lives) and he sent the money happily, was a very smooth transaction, but the time difference was the bottle neck. Great user, and I vouch happily.

Delysid - May 22, 2017, 10:05 am

Sent gift cards to this guy some few hours ago. Since then I PMd him asking if I can expect to receive my money today, and he has just seen the PM and decided not to reply.

Edit: got half of the money. I shall receive the other half when his UK account gets unlimited

I'm not spamming your thread, just responding to what people are saying about me lol

Why did you state in my neg that i sell for 50%?

Firstly, that's not true at all, I offered you 55-60% because I desperately need to sell this card.

Secondly, I would normally offer 70-75% but as I said I need to sell desperately, I have no use from the card since I'm from a different country than the US so I have no use for it

jBoss - December 28, 2017, 3:17 pm

I sincerely advice to anyone who dont want to wait hours or days for your payments don't deal with this bitch! After i refused to sell him more AGC because i didn't wanna wait hours or keep reading lies from he, this cunt negged me!

He tried to scam me with earlier today!

After i refuse to send him more AGC he negged me!

I can't rep him, but if i could i'll do it!

Just be careful guys!

Sorry this happened to you mate but op does this all the time, he sent my $12.5 after 50 hours.

Don't deal with OP at all he only respects you if you're an UB3R otherwise he will make you wait several hours and don't send the funds.

no problem but search up current markets next time you are dealing just because btc is slow and eth usually isnt doesnt mean it cant be, btc was fast before and market getting over populated making it slow, i use coinbase to send eht payments and they had troubles with payments for a few days now.

Tried to sell this user a prime gift and he send me his email to send it to him. I sent it to him, then after I sent it, he started asking me a bunch of stupid questions such as "send me a picture of your gc history" and when I did, he then starts questioning why the amounts are all $50 gift cards. Then he proceeds to tell me, "I haven't slept in two days so don't be mad if I don't respond for a few hours". This dude takes your AGC, makes excuses rather than telling you what he's doing (selling your AGC before he pays you). I called Amazon and got my prime gift back. Just a warning to any members planning on dealing with him. Don't expect to get paid within 10 minutes. Expect 3+ hours.

i never even reedemed your giftcard, i wasnt even planning to until you answered what i asked you to, and since pretty much you were sketchy as hell i wouldnt claim it all together, so i did not takign your agc as i wasnt even planning to do a deal with you since your agc is most likely carded. I will vouch for Themis not redeeming cards he doesn't want, it's clear Themis is taking extreme caution so I offered him AGC's upfront and he never responded but he never redeemed the cards either so I was still able to sell them. It is frustrating but understandable considering the risk with AGC. He has great reputation here and isn't going to throw it away over a single GC so you should have no problems finding another buyer.

If you're in the US gameflip.com is a good option, payouts via bank deposit or paypal. Bitcoin payout after 20 successful sales without negative feedback and photo ID upload. Just take screenshots with date/time of the GC balance as there are a few scammers there.

First I sold him a $50 agc without any problem whatsoever. Then I asked if he was interested in a $12 agc, then he claimed the code, and then he said he dont do such deals. After he claimed the code. Got skypechat of it all.

as you can read in my thread and my tos that i do not do deals under 10$ btc or pp, ur agc is not more than that, when u get total more than 10$ btc (which is not much) i will be happy to send

Why did you claim the code then?

themadguyx - March 4, 2018, 11:24 pm

PM'd the OP on 1st March about a 10 euro code, he asked me to send the code which I did then he asked to provide the proof which also I did and since then he has ignored me. I asked him to just let me if he won't do it, still hasn't replied. Code has not been claimed though, wouldn't recommend him to anyone unless you want to wait a week for him to respond.

Themis - March 5, 2018, 2:09 am

"Code has not been claimed though" why didnt u exchanged it then? jesus buying some more let me know guys, need some uk aswell

themadguyx - March 5, 2018, 3:41 am

Because I was waiting for you to confirm whether you'll do it or not. Very unprofessional.

Yeah? So why tf did you redeem my code then? Makes no absolute sense at all since I clearly stated before sending the code that it's on $12 only. And you still redeemed it? Without telling me to get more?

After issues with Themis time ago i told to myself i will never deal with him again.. but i had 15 GBP amazon.co.uk card and he was only guy who could exchange this for me.. I sent it to him two days ago, then he stopped answering me.. After day he answered that i have to send him proof that its ewhored (lol thats funny because i made like 10 deals with him before and i told him my Skype where he saw all our conversations and sreens that i sent him before,but ok..) .. I thought he did not redeem the code, but he did..

Wtf, scamming because of 15 gbp?

Im dealing with many people but Themis is worst guy to exchanges on here.. Deal with caution !

Okay, i will post the screenshots just so everyone here knows what a lying  you are, and guys now he is trying to threaten and bully me on skype

<http://prntscr.com/k37y2c>

He says he can send the BTC and after redeeming says he will go home and send soon and see what happens..

<https://prnt.sc/k37yd5>

<http://prntscr.com/k3863l>

<http://prntscr.com/k387nd>

And here, the next transaction after redeeming he goes silent again and then see for yourself

<http://prntscr.com/k389sy>

<http://prntscr.com/k38bsb>

So, this went on and on and this is what he had to say at the end

<http://prntscr.com/k38cpn>

So guys, the trick is he'll send less each time and then if you notice and ask he will say he'll send it next time, and then he'll ask you for proof of screenshot and mock you this way, DWEC!

Hey,

Can someone please clarify my doubt about this thread.

If I send him $100 worth Amazon.com gift card will he be sending $65-70 worth of btc?

or

If I send him $70 worth Amazon.com gift card will he send $100 worth btc?

100agc for 70 btc i gues

Themis - January 30, 2019, 9:03 am

Terms of use 1. If any of your AGC gets chargebacked, on hold or withheld from my account you are responsible for paying that amount back.

2. If paypal payment you sent is on hold for some reason im not obligated to pay for it until i get it in my paypal account.

3. If paypal payment you sent is chargebacked you are responsible to pay me for that amount.

Upon dealing you accept this terms since i cant edit thread posting this here.

I have $50 Agc available for exchange. let me know thanks.

halibel123 - February 1, 2019, 6:23 am

Words are not enough to describe how much @Themis contribute to my business and helping me any way he can. Know him for few months already and did plenty of exchanges with him, more than 1k$ in total. Very low amount of people here can deliver the service @Themis can do. I really appreciate the business and for everyone who is looking for exchange, look no further! That's the perfect guy!

Why would one sell 100 agc for 70 btc unless I got it for free or more than 50% off

Obtained via e-whoring or other methods... so it is free basically.

Oh ok thanks for the information. So, however they might have got but we can still buy amazon gift cards from them at discount and use it right? we should not have any problems for buying and use those cards?

You get problems with your amazon account when the sender (ewhored person) realize he's been scamed and call the bank to reverse the payment.
