Thread: Losing exploit tags?

Qwazz - May 18, 2017, 7:20 pm

Unable to sign into some of my tags from the most recent exploit. When I reset them they have an new gamertag associated with the email. Anyone else experiencing this or have a work around?

Has happened to 3 out of 15 created.

Never had that happen but got console banned on 360 yesterday after a month of not playing it and every acc on my Xbox one banned. First exploit tag I've ever lost. Thinking about switching to PS4 now.

I never got my hands on any of them, but they definitely have been taken away from some individuals.

Do they still exist when you search em via friends list? Mine do. So the tag is still there. Fucking weird. ?
