You've been here for 5 years and only made 500 posts, a lot of which are low quality.

Threads like these are what sets you apart to be honest.

kpown - May 20, 2017, 8:55 am

I applied and got it first time....

Ur problem is ur rep ratio. Way too many negs and neuts to positives

I waited till I had 100 rep and I applied with only 6 negs and 2 neuts and got it. Also had over 1000 posts before applying

I also made sure my posts per day was over 2.5

Holdstrom - May 20, 2017, 9:16 am

This thread doesn't help lol.

This isn't hard facts though. I'm sure there are tons of variables. Even relating to how he's feeling in real life.

I think I did pretty good rebuilding my hf account. I went from -12 rep all the way up to now. I posted some pretty stupid shit in my day.

Egregious Jr. - May 20, 2017, 9:23 am

Don't think this will help you.

You think that's bad? I've been denied 4 times lol.

TB12 - May 20, 2017, 9:30 am

Probably going to be perm denied now because of this thread. gg

.iniFile - May 20, 2017, 9:30 am

I applied not knowing how hard it would be. I had like 60 rep when I did it. Got accepted the first time.

Well you're getting it again probably, considering that the permanent denied applicants were just recently given another chance you will probably be waiting a hell of a long time if you get perm denied again. Only reason people got another chance was because it was HF's 10 year anniversary.
