You must be at least level 10 on steam to use Artwork Showcase To get your steam background direct link go to its market link and "View full size" and send me that link Ill do maybe 2 today and 1 each day of the week so it can take a few days to get your animated background I'm in no means professional on after effects, i'm a graphic student and the objective is to get better everyday so while i train, why not giveaway something here. Not every background is perfect to edit, but ill do my best If people really like this giveaway i maybe open another 5 after i finish this one
