Ordered a box1 on 04 Feb but received a box3 on 07 Feb, it was ok, I simply paid him the difference in price due to lack of box1 stock. But that wasnt my plan.

However the server is very good for the price is, its been 10 days, no complains.

I've ordered another box1 on 14 Feb, delivered on 16 Feb with wrong credentials.

I give 4 out 5 stars, but I would give 5 of 5 stars if the service reply from seller were quicker.

Dude, you really should give customers better service and better response time, its just my advice.

and please have a look on skype or discord.

So ? its VPS server and its shared ! its optional for people who can't afford a dedicated server.All dedicated servers have unshared/dedicated port but you can't give unshared port to a vps server even if i to.its not possiable.

here? The instant spoof server you have given to me has already been taken back by you. You are a 100% fraudster. No refund, no server change, and reclaim it. No one will buy a spoof server from you because there is no guarantee and you will never be able to reach you in any way, because you will not care about anyone after you get paid.

I was going to purchase the $250 box, but I guess I'm not now.

I sent 2 BTC addresses, and it has been more than 10 days since I requested the refund. If you go online again, you should not ask me to delete the feedback here, but tell me that you have given me a refund. You saw my TXID, but you chose to ignore it. I won't delete any feedback until I get a refund. Maybe the OP has no plans for a refund. Who knows? When you go online, you can give me a refund in just a few minutes, but you didn't do it, just told me to remove these shit.

Warn again that no one should buy it, maybe you will get a shit, maybe you can't get anything.

I have been working with him since 2017. So far everything was brilliant. He was very respectful and punctual. The last time, on 25 January I made a payment for the several servers. Two days ago on the 2nd February, all the servers went down unexpectedly. Skype says that the last seen was seven days ago. I don't expect he scammed all of us. It might be police arrested him, or something get wrong.

Police could only take him if he was involved in illegal activity which i hope he was not.

He has been having huge issues with his server for the past 2-4months, the servers were highly filtered.

Looks like all of his servers were suspended.

I hope OP will update ASAP and that he's alright.

He is defiantly not arrested.

He was responding only a few days ago, so I could renew it. Then it got down and all the connections ended there.

If he renewed the server, they would've been still online even after his arrest, unless Police gained access to them which I highly doubt, as they were hosted on a datacenter that wouldn't give it without court order.

It seems like a scam to me, he's busy and doesn't care about his clients.

The worst scenario

Host suspended all servers and he had to exit scam.

I hope he did not, he was honest and helpful although i don't really care.
