Thread: CRITICAL: Impostor exposed. UID=1550131 AKA McLovin, AKA Zoo, AKA Alexlv.

Armada - May 23, 2017, 10:11 am

So lets get started here.

It started for me about 6-8 months ago. Had some random Vietnamese chick contact me bitching I never did the job I agreed to do for her. (What the fuck?)

Turns out she posted in the Hacking requests section and got PMed a Skype address.

live:cancelling

who claimed to be me.

Had my old avatar, and not my current statuses. obviously a fake for those who speak to me regularly on IM. However a new user assumed this was infact the Legit ME, and proceeded to send the scammer over $200 USD in AGC codes.

It was only when I was contacted by the user directly complaining I did not fulfill my end of the bargain did I get tipped off to this scam. I explained to the user directly, I never accept AGC as payment (no reason to) but more so was able to get quite a bit of information from them including many of the scammers details.

The one repetitive phrase/name etc that will become very clear is "Mclovin"

As you will clearly see this user has a HISTORY

Well, dude finally fucked up and gave away the last piece of information I required to connect the dots, while trying to scam another member, they fucked up on their skype, revealing who they truly are.

I am drawing from THIS thread for those interested.

Although, yes they have created, yet another new Skype, they follow the same pattern and even the same fucking name (how stupid can you honestly be?). It took nearly 6 months but I have finally pin pointed my and others imposter.

DO NOT DEAL WITH THIS USER WHATSOEVER.

DO NOT SEND A DIME TO THEM EVEN IF THEY SAY THEIR GRANDMOTHER IS DYING AND THAT IS THE ONLY THING TO SAVE THEM.

DO NOT TRUST THIS USER AT ALL, ON ANY LEVEL.

@Zoo Now that I know who is behind this bull shit, I strongly suggest you run and hide. ?

Did you actually think you could use My and other reputable members good names to scam for your pitiful bull shit and see no consequences?

Can we get those PayPal accounts closed too? What sort of info does PayPal ask for when reporting stuff?

From what I gathered they were unverified, likely throw away accounts he transfered to his primary holding account. At least that is what I would do if I were a scammer. Paypal is useless, I was able to atleast help some users get their money back through all of this, including the Vietnamese chick and amazon. But lets be real, chances are dudes got like 10-15 accounts and he will just continue on, but now that I have found the Uber and likely his primary account, maybe this will slow a bit....

The dude seems to be your #1 fan

TheChi?f - May 23, 2017, 10:27 am

Actually, his name is not AlexIV but he was impersonating the real AlexIV who is also a AGC exchanger on the site.

You just made my case that much stronger.

Thanks. lol

No problem. As per what I've seen, Impersonating other users is a rule violation.

Hopefully, this guy gets stopped now.

Solid community alert. Thanks, glad he's finally out in the open

Decim - May 23, 2017, 11:26 am

Have you tried contacting a staff member? Impersonating a user is not allowed.

Sucks that this happened to you, people who ripoff other people are lower than trash.

Been attempted, but the largest issue is they take the deals off site.

PMing someone on HF and having them add a Skype ID that is not uniform is not exactly a policy violation, it is one of the few loop holes the scammers use to rip people off.

Its fucking pathetic, and if I ever come in to physical contact with the mother fucker who imposes as me, Im gonna need a shovel as well.... Fucking HATE people running my alias through the mud for no reason. I deal with enough bull shit as it already stands without others adding to my pile.?

(May 23, 2017 11:46 AM)Armada Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Get the fuck out of my threads already. I asked you once already.

OBVIOUSLY I don't give one fuck what your opinion is, so go post in the lounge instead.

You must be a big boy with all the online swearing, damn. So masculine and tough. You forgot you are a fucking nerd who is spending his days coding in the basement while taking anti-stress meds because the feds can fuck you up at any given time.

You're not tough. You're an imbecile with a big mouth. Get over yourself already, honey.

Oh, and I don't really care whether you give me "permission" to post in your threads. It's a public forum. Thought you knew that after being around for that long...

Also your whole personality on this forum is completely fake and me and multiple others know that you aren't the clean guy you're trying to impose here.

Some very good investigative skills.

Seems staff agrees with me....

Sorry to all those who were scammed by this asshole.

It is so totally unfair to those who are new and well, unknowing... ?

Sad to see a Uber turn out this way.

I wont bother closing this topic until their account closure. So if anyone wants to put anymore input. But I believe this has somewhat been resolved. To some degree.
