Very good, I also like the fact you have included a custom form to select what website you want to test the proxies against. Now I can get rid of this bulky checker I used to use that gave my dedicated server a ton of issues.

Purchased this program and once I received it after over 36 hours of waiting it doesn't even work. The program stops responding after loading for 5 minutes every time I run it. Plus pronouncer gave me a neutral rep saying I will backcharge all payments when I have yet to back charge a single payment through PayPal. I only said I would because of the time it took to deliver what I paid for..AND IT DOESNT EVEN FUCKING WORK! Change my rep you jackass and supply me with a working version of what I paid for or I will open a dispute. This is bullshit

You haven't reached out to me or Pronouncer to get it fixed in any way.

The program has never even loaded for 5 minutes for me or any customers as it opens instantly. Just PM me for support.

As I said before also, I asked Pronouncer to change it, but you threatened to charge back and he does not like threats.

The program works fine, depending in your internet and your PC it sometimes goes into not responding due to the amount of requests if you stop complaining and wait it out you'll see it works. I don't appreciate your attitude. Suspending your license feel free to chargeback but I won't process you a refund ?

Good day "Jackass"

First customer to complain, one previous customer had an issue with .net so I refunded him and fixed the issue. A little bit of manners goes a long way

I'll be waiting for your dispute one me ?
