These are all of the Emails I have Designed so far, some are definitely worse than others, would love feedback on all :D

I don't have the posts required to post links/images so here's an imgur album, sorry!

I'm still relatively new to design, sorry for the garbage :P

Looking good, I assume you made these to apply for a job?

It's more like a fallback plan in case I ever need it to apply for a job. If I could find a job where it's useful then definitely :D

Those all look amazing, nice work. How long have you been designing? I used to do it but fell out once I graduated from HS. Starting to get back into it again.

Thanks! I've only been designing for about 3 months now, I find I'm lousy at anything that needs much creativity, so doing this is my attempt at fixing that.

Damn, those chicken wings look good on the Smokey Bones design. ?

Really good work OP, looks clean and professional.
