Ok so I have this dudes email, phone number, and fb, and I want to get his address

I know a general location on where he lives, but I want his exact address.

How would I go about doing this?

(Also he lives in UK and I live in US)

Is he over 18 or under 18? Send me a PM of all your info you have on him and I'll give it a go.

You can try online phone books and maybe look for recent (2017) records of him living at that current location to confirm.

Depending on the Country of course.

plenty of ways to do this

I would start with background check on well known site that should reveal it
