Thread: [\(LOOKING FOR SOMEONE\) HACK UNIVERSITY \[EDIT GRADES\]](#)

Zinedine Zidane - May 31, 2017, 8:07 am

Hello,

I am looking for someone able to edit my grades.
I got bad grades this semester, I may be repeating this year and it's impossible.

thats my school (the target) <http://www.efrei.fr/en/>

(Engineering School)

this is the link where everyone can access to the grades (teacher to edit them or students to see) :
<https://extranet.groupe-efrei.fr/>

I think there is an other interface where administration is also able to edit the grades but I don't have the link

Anyway, 500 euros (0.25 BTC) to edit few notes (may be 2 or 3)

Let me know in PM

Have a nice day ?

Just going to say it now but the price you are offering is unreasonable for the job.

Also they might keep offline backups of the site to restore from if they notice anything suspicious - so of course that's a priority to avoid. They may also keep the data stored elsewhere and just display the information on site, so please clarify.

I agree. People who can do this charge thousands

No, it would increase the price as if he's caught it's no longer under our control.

Honestly, this is just a bad idea from the get go. Sure you got bad grades, but trying to change them like this is just gonna give you more problems. Instead, just focus on studying and turning those grades around with hard work. Cut down on your other extracurricular activities a bit maybe, it will help. Sure you stumbled, but the trick is to not let it keep you down. Good luck!

wot, but wouldn't that make it a lot more simple for him to do it, and it's not his problem if that guy got caught?

Not necessarily on making it simpler, but if he gets caught and you have no control over the situation - he can dog on you and if your opsec is bad you can face charges.

I remember Tommy did something like this back in the day. He charged like x4 more than what you're offering. Good luck, regardless.

I do not intend to sound rude or anything, but is your future really worth €500?

As the others have said, even though you have got a dozen of student loans crawling up your , you have to consider paying a higher amount of money.

g0han - June 1, 2017, 3:26 am

This is a really bad idea, you should repeat the year instead

Flaws. - June 1, 2017, 3:27 am

Awful idea. Try and contact Tommy, hes all about awful ideas. Theres your best shot

Cursed Power - June 1, 2017, 3:32 pm

yeah pay $2000 and work ur ass this summer to get the money back, this is ur price for failing, either repeat or work like there is no tomorrow and pay

?ictor? - June 1, 2017, 3:33 pm

This is not really worth doing, if you get caught, it'll be rough.
