Since you closed the thread and aren't able to re-open it, you should send them a PM regarding this.

They will not be notified about this thread, as they would have with the other thread, which means that they'll not be able to notice this thread and therefore don't have a fair chance at getting their reward.

Besides that, congrats to all the winners, OP you really are generous ?

FLY LIKE ALADDIN - May 31, 2017, 8:18 am

Congratulations to all the winners. Very nice thing of you to do. I hope you're enjoying your HF experience.
