Thread: Getting a shit ton of free steam games bot exist?

Windows 98 - May 31, 2017, 10:35 pm

There used to be a script that would add like a shit ton of free steam games to your library, but it no longer works. Is there something of the sorts out there anymore? I've tried Googling a shit ton but can't find much.

Thanks

you mean the steam files you would replace and not be able to play the games online and 90% of them didn't work? :p

it's not a bot

it's a script that adds demos and stuff to your profile

That's what you're talking about right?

He talking about the script that would just add all the free games & demos so you didnt have to do it yourself

Ummm i havent seen one in awhile..

But i stopped downloading demos & free games unless buddy recommends

I don't know if it's still relevant but there used to be a thing called pacsteam that would add just about all of the steam games to your account however you'd have to play them offline or risk a vac ban or something like that...

I can't recall too much of pacsteam but it used to be the shit back in the day however I'm not sure if it's been maintained.

Could be worth looking into though

I just googled 'pacsteam' and up came this site: <https://pacsteam.org/>

What the f*ck. literally a site with some Danish Nazi guy going nuts at the government.

is what I was talking about.

I'm not sure if that's the one I used back in the day however I do recall something called pacsteam giving me just about every game.
(No idea if this is infected or not btw)

Cool Danish guy btw xD

Hehe i'm lucky?

I used it once i saw it, and it added like 15k of shit to my account. It doesn't show up in your library though, if you go to the free games almost all of them are 'In your Library'

I remember this thing called undead patch. Did give you all the steam games and you could download them but that was like 8 years ago. Not sure if it still exists
