Thread: Fidget Spinners Made by the U.S. Government

TB12 - June 1, 2017, 4:23 pm

God damn some of you are hopeless, this is a JOKE. Who the hell would actually believe this?

My post here got me thinking.. What if the U.S. government made fidget spinners and got them popular to spread autism all across the world? Maybe even using them as Biochemical Weapons to make our enemies autistic?

Reason they would use it on us as well is simple. They don't want us to realize that our country (if you live in America), is run by morons and fall for media bullshit?

What do you guys think?

Fragger - June 1, 2017, 4:33 pm

This isn't a serious post right?

Please don't tell me you're being serious.

Knucklez. - June 1, 2017, 4:34 pm

"Country is run by morons", says the child on an online forum. You don't understand politics at all. Yes, the Trump administration has had many negative factors. However, to say the country is run by idiots is complete bullshit.

TB12 - June 1, 2017, 4:42 pm

I think what scared me more is that many of you couldn't realize this was clearly a joke

Hm.... Aren't you a child on an online forum also then? Which would also imply that you do not understand politics at all either... Thanks.

The funny part is that this isn't a Science, Religion, Philosophy, and Politics thread

This wasn't suppose to get political and it was clearly a joke. Some people got offended so easily it's unreal

What do you guys think? I think by buying a fidget spinner you're autistic by definition.

You have a very good point, do they maybe make you have Down Syndrome instead?

Richard Nixon - June 1, 2017, 5:52 pm

maybe it is a detection system for the US gov to easily filter out the autistic and jittery and they are on a list to not be allowed guns? lol
