If anyone is interested, post your rank, role(s), and summoner name down. If we can get some diamond+ players in here we might do this.

Speaking of that, feel free to post regardless of if you're diamond+ or not. We could form multiple teams for different ranks.

It can be any region as long as there is enough members. I'll just be running the NA team.

Is this for your Skill group, or for prized tournaments? (or is it just for fun?)
