$300 to learn how to unlock a phone is not "really cheap", lol. Why would anybody pay $300 to learn how to unlock a phone?

Nobody even wants to buy my super legit ebook which can return 200% ROI for $200. Good luck with that.

Just keep your methods to yourself and make money with it. Why create rivals when you can earn on your own...

People want to buy the methods so they can unlock multiple phones they have and I don't have to worry about them.

You might as well keep your service.

I don't understand how this is a "really cool" e-book.

Everything that you said the e-book includes is already included by most e-books.

Other than your absurd pricing and unique content, there isn't anything that makes this "cool."
