I don't know, I think it's a bit too early to come to conclusions, for what reason would they have to hoax it?

It just doesn't make any sense to me.

After serious research I have come to the conclusion that both OP and the creator of the video are utter bellends.

I'm quite sure that I ate a piece of cereal this morning that had a higher IQ than those 2 combined governments may be corrupt but the british government wouldnt do that , its britiaain not usa

Touqan Stan - June 5, 2017, 10:04 am

I really have a hard time believing this is even remotely legit

Rotca - June 5, 2017, 9:30 pm

I don't know if this one was a hoax or not, I doubt it since it is the UK, but whenever I see someone say "What would be the point of having a hoax attack" I just want to punch them in the face. If you can't see the benefit of having fake attacks, you're a moron. (Being able to have people to blame, put fear in to citizens so that they fear other groups of people or things such as guns)

fake attacks are hands down the best way to give more power to the government

E.G taking away rights from citizens or increasing spying and right now we are seeing a change in the way the UK is being governed (I'm not saying this attack was fake I know it's not) the UK is currently the 1st world country with the most Internet surveillance

Im not going to have some foreign 15 year old muslim kid tell me it was a hoax to cover for the scumbags who kill little kiddies and innocent people having a good night. First of all, you're a dumb fuck OP, second of all I dont get why these 'conspiracy theorists' nitpick everything, 24/7 but when your family gets blown up by ISIS you tell me if its a hoax or not kidda. You are right to question your governments, but shit like this is not a hoax.. REAL PEOPLE die of REAL EVENTS, whether or not governments orchestrate it thats a different story. But to think the whole thing is a fucking hoax is just a joke, like dont you think if it was a hoax they would not be getting changed in the damn fucking street? The reason they are getting changed in the street is because its an EMERGENCY, and they are changing into their gear to go shoot some terrorist fucks.

Get real, take off your tin foil hat and wake up.

kliner9er - June 5, 2017, 10:58 pm

i don't want to think it's a hoax, but there are a lot of people that messed up.

Amp - June 5, 2017, 11:53 pm

There's no way this is a hoax.

Kiil - June 6, 2017, 2:53 am

Everything is a hoax now, it's funny

BitsnBytes - June 6, 2017, 3:00 am

OP ever heard of fake news?

Peble - June 6, 2017, 2:28 pm

Lol at people who believe this, why in your right mind would you create a hoax like this when it makes pretty much all political parties look bad? If anything the UK is more worried about giving muslims special treatment than making them look bad.
