Mr. Reviewer - June 6, 2017, 9:39 am

BEFORE YOU READ THE REVIEW

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

-You must understand that the reviews I make are from my point of view.If I grade 3/10 that doesn't mean the method itself is bad, maybe for other people that method is 7, so keep this in mind when you're reading my reviews.

-My reviews will probably piss off many people and break some of their businesses ...or raise them.This means I will not debate with the sellers whether or not my reviews are accurate.Unless there is really something wrong I won't recheck my analysis.

-I review good and bad products, not only bad products as some of you may suspect.In the end, remains the decision of the reader if it's bad or good.

FAQ

Who am I?Spoiler \(Click to View\)

-A random guy that bought dozens of methods in the past few months from HackForums Sellers, and with disappointment, I announce that 90% don't work or they require insane hard work to even get them started. Highly "vouched" methods, with "valid proofs" from so highly upper-class "highly vouched members/old members" or how you want to call them, methods that look good on paper but on practice leave you with a sour taste in your mouth and with dust in your wallet.

-For those that keep asking me, "who I am and how I buy for months but my account is only for a week". I've been on hackforums for awhile now, my first account was around 2009 but was disabled due to inactivity. I kept coming back.Never engaged in topics too much.Until 1'st May when I decided I should make reviews about products.

What I'm going to show you?Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Few angles to look at when you're buying a method and few insights of what each method consists of.

I will keep this short and say this - you don't have to become an investigator but in the end is YOUR money and YOUR time you're going to throw at a random guy that promises you the moon.

Personal review:

About the product:

Spoiler (Click to View)

1.5/10

-Overall very basic information.

-It's more like common sense when you start in one of these niches.

-One of the methods sends you to one of the free guides on forum.

-Even if you get method2#/3# going, requires analyzing the markets, promoting, know when to sell/buy. Overall, time.

About the seller:

Spoiler (Click to View)

2/10

-Considering the amount of info the seller provides, in some cases, you'll have to do your own research.

-Involves short and vague explanations.

-In one of the methods, the seller tells you to google it, didn't have the courtesy to write it inside the book.

-Doesn't provide information on what he sells.

This grade reviews his way of advertising, addressing to potential customers and his way of convincing them.

I seem to remember a post from him where he said this isn't his first account on HF, he registered quite a while ago

Edit - it's in the op

Or at least the beginning process. I've only been here for maybe a few weeks and I've seen "DON'T BUY EBOOKS" in people's signatures.. mottos.. and just publicly stated around the marketplace. I'm guessing eBooks are a scam them self.

They are, there is no doubt. I used to run a review service myself and read a shit tonne of them. Sometimes there is 1 that is actually unique but it generally takes a huge investment.

Enzio - June 6, 2017, 10:05 am

It's funny how some people ask for a review knowing damn well their shit sucks lol.

We both joined in that month.

What difference does it make?

Cylow - June 6, 2017, 10:13 am

Doesn't OP technically reveal the methods in the "review"?

Nah, unless they're so basic that there's literally nothing else to describe in the ebook. In that case it's the fault of the author for not writing any actual content, imo. If the reviewer gives away your method in like 5 words then maybe you need to come up with a better method, ya know?

Buying low and selling high is a common merchanting technique used by people. What matters is the way you do it. Your niche.

And as far as OPs review is concerned, he briefly talks about it without having to tell us how exactly the method works.

Yep, this is almost correct. But never took it as seriously as I do it on HF.

Anyways, thanks for the review OP and best regards
