Thread: MemeBoards.com | Shitposting Memeposting Bullshit Fest

Malevolent - June 6, 2017, 7:11 pm

Yep, I did it. I started that meme forum I was asking about.

I'll eventually have a thread design and shit, but here's the link for now:

<https://memeboards.com/>

Thanks for your support in posting/joining. I appreciate you.

Yep, I know:

-The theme is basic and not amazing yet. I am working on it, fuck off.

-It seems simple. Okay, cool.

-This isn't going to go anywhere. IDGAF -- I want to shitpost and give out a fuck ton of awards.

-There's no activity. Yeah well everyone starts somewhere.

I sold it awhile back.

General discussion forums don't have a chance.

At least this is a niche.

Thanks for joining!

Ahaha, I hope it grows that much -- I guess we'll see where it goes. For basically the first day or so it's doing alrightish, especially with no real advertising.

I will be adding more awards eventually. If you have any suggestions, let me know.

Gary - June 7, 2017, 11:04 pm

uhhh i dont know if i wanna sign up cause i have no disposable email and i cba asked to make one

So you'll be fine without an email.

Not Your Average Orange - June 8, 2017, 3:48 pm

Looks like a nice forum. I've registered.

Charger - June 8, 2017, 3:54 pm

I'm currently the only active administration member.
Would love to find passionate folks to help grow the site out though.

Yut! I will think of some crafty awards for ya.

Edit:

Under Other Forums: There should be one called "The Night Club" or "Night's Club" and its a dank section that I run because my name is NightForce, get it, its fucking lit and anyone who doesnt like
"Night's Club" gets repfucked, lol jk about the repfucking part, but serious about that Night Club shit

Yeah I'd like a black theme as well, goes better with my username

Malevolent - June 12, 2017, 1:30 pm

Ayy lmao, so I am working on a dark theme, but I am trying to iron out all of the light theme issues first otherwise it'll become a nightmare.

Malevolent - June 13, 2017, 9:26 pm

Still working on the dark theme currently.
Multiple boards have been switched out and the first Lawn Mower winner announced!

It took a fair amount of work and we are still working on it currently.

We have a list of things to change/add to it.

Malevolent - June 23, 2017, 12:40 pm

We're basically at 1,000 posts without paying for any advertising.

Off to an alright start.

Not my best compared to my track record, but it's a hard forum to market.

Malevolent - June 24, 2017, 12:55 pm

It's sure a possibility, but we are avoiding adding unnecessary boards at this time.

CipherZ - June 25, 2017, 9:28 pm

I like the colour set, the purple works well with the grey, not a fan of full devotion of websites to meme's but hey, it's all got to be created and shared somewhere I guess

Malevolent - June 26, 2017, 1:15 pm

Hey folks, we surpassed 1,000 posts awhile back.

Hoping to see some new faces around.

The sticky header is a bit annoying. I don't think you should make the bottom part of it stick aswell.
Just the links under the logo.

If you still have that light theme enabled in the usercp I'll signup and post CNN memes.

We do indeed still have the light version of the theme, although it's not majorly supported, it'll do 99% of what it needs to.

Malevolent - July 12, 2017, 1:54 pm

Things have been a little slow lately, but I have also been busy.

We don't plan on selling, or letting the site die though.

Malevolent - July 20, 2017, 1:35 pm

Hoping to eventually restart activity a bit, but I have been busy.

Wish I would have found a partner awhile back.

This forum still exists kind of. Not that it matters much.

N1ghtm4re - June 15, 2018, 4:55 am

Your first mistake was using such a bland theme, shows no general connection to the forums subject thus being an instant turn away for your forums topic of choice.

It could have worked, but I guess marketing isn't one of your strengths?

Likewise

Hm. I would give this a 1/10 because your site is a broke bitch's paradise.

The 1 is only because Shock Hosting is a good business with good people behind it.

Not too much going on in the forum these days.

Might update the boards at some point.

Mainly looking to sell it to someone who gives more of a shit than I do.
