Any other bald and short homies out there? Let's know each other and feel good about life. ?

I'm not bald, but I'm pretty sure I'm not considered "tall" either.

To be honest, I don't mind it at all.

I can relate being short and bald. I tend to wear hats a lot and keep a beard to hide the fact I have no hair on my head.

Bald and short. Don't mind it other than having to shave the back and sides often to avoid looking like crusty the clown.
