Out of the modern batman movies, Mr. Keaton is my batman.

I'm pretty sad by this. His random antics in Family Guy were extremely funny tbh.

HughKent - June 10, 2017, 11:51 am

Damn. Hurt's to see such a honorable person go. May he rest in peace.

I knew him from; Family Guy, Fairly Odd Parents and Batman but I'd never watched it before. It's sad to see him go.

That sucks, but 88 is a good age. He lived a long life.

NurSpec - June 10, 2017, 12:42 pm

Cancer is such a cunt. I know him from Family Guy/Batman like most others, he'll be missed for sure.

RIP!

Cajunn - June 10, 2017, 12:43 pm

Thats sad man. Leukamia is one of the worst cancer types. I had cancer when i was born, And they found it when i was 8 months old while my dad showering me. It was my twin bro that died inside my moms stomach they never knew about that has had grown inside the lower back of my body and turned into a cancer.
