Thread: YEEZY BOOST 350 V2 - ZEBRA RE-RELEASE

Caleb™ - June 12, 2017, 2:00 pm

So, news just dropped there's a zebra re-release. I've never copped yeezys before, and i know about @yzylab and yeezy mafia. I'm a newbie, but i really wanna get just 1 pair of the zebra's. Sorry if these questions seem stupid lmao

The market dropped for the zebras but at one point it was around the 1.2k-1.7k area.

Looks like I should have held on to them lol, IDK what the market was like for size 13's but still. I sold them to my old college roommate for 600 bucks haha.

Just enter raffles on your local stores! It gives you a higher percentage of copping the shoes for retail, online purchasing is going to be gruesome

Looks Like I'll be flying somewhere to get them via the Adidas Confirmed app.

Thanks for letting me know, I will be trying to cop these.

Tom Kirkman - June 13, 2017, 2:22 pm

Copywriter - June 13, 2017, 3:17 pm

Anyone wanna partner up and fucking make hella profit?

Limousine - June 13, 2017, 4:11 pm

I'll be running a few jobs on my task bot, probably won't be using proxies this time around as I had bad experiences last time. This release is going to be a great second chance for everybody who missed out the first time. Yeezy Supply will be the best place to go if you want to try to cop manually, as Adidas official is difficult with the splash page and all. Finishline, Kith, and other footsites should be dropping as well so I'll probably try on there too. There's gonna be lots of opportunities to grab a pair if you're determined. I'll might sell a pair or two on here if I get any since I've seen recent interest.

Man that's hard! i suggest you practice on cashing out as fast as you cans o when the drop comes you are well prepared bud!

Techius - June 13, 2017, 11:58 pm

Am I the only one who thinks these shoes are ugly?

Limousine - June 16, 2017, 12:38 am

UPDATE: If the rumors are true, you'll easily get a pair. Yeezy Mafia is saying 36,000 pairs on adidas official website just in the USA. That's adidas' website numbers alone.
