Gary - June 14, 2017, 8:14 pm

In my opinion this is what Dawn should have been.

Good luck with the group, basically a Studio remake lol

Skrrrt - June 14, 2017, 8:15 pm

Can you explain the TV/Movie aspect of it?

Like just discussing shows etc?

Studio was great. Members did stuff together and we had people who made music.

Assault where are you?!

More on-topic, what will this group entail? Will there be group collaborations and such?

I have thought about it, I would just need to find a group or two that would be willing to. But it is in my mind rn.

I meant within the group, more specifically with members of the group who create music and such.

What about podcasts? Actual music creators, not half of these pseudo ones?

I also like how you cut off the rest, seems like I'm right. ?

Definitely.

I actually hadn't really thought of podcasts, that could be quite the entertaining venture.

The TV/Movie aspect of it is to basically discuss a movie or tv show they have watched and express their opinions, likes, dislikes, etc. with the film itself.

Never thought anyone would ever really make a music/entertainment group, sounds dope, hopefully there's sub-categories for each music genre, or maybe a certain thread for each genre.

Guardians - June 14, 2017, 9:32 pm

If there is a trap/edm/house subsection, count me in.

Regardless, good luck with the group as it seems promising!
