Thread: 'Fox eSports Betting Advice - 70% + Win Rate

'Fox - June 14, 2017, 12:46 am

I'll keep this short and simple - I have a 70%+ win rate with my eSports bets.

I bet on all the bets I post and is usually a big amount, that is how confident I am with my picks. Others hide their bet amount and often bet only a few dollars each time, I am transparent with how much I bet each time.

Pricing will be a one-time fee of $125 Crypto payment or $150 PP and you will be invited to the group.

I am not willing to sell a timed membership as that will be too hard to manage.

Picks are posted whenever I see good games up, which means not every day will have picks.

The website I use supports BTC and has no verification needed - PM me if you want to know which one.

Main picks will be with CS:GO, occasionally Dota 2, LoL, and SC2 picks. I will NOT give regular sport picks, I bet on those for fun and do not have a good win-rate on them.

There is a 30-day guarantee, if I close the group within 30 days of your purchase date, I will send you a refund.

Accepted Payment methods : Any Altcoins & BTC.

Contact me through HF PM with your contact information :)

CHECK MY LAST POSTS ON THIS THREAD FOR RECENT BETS - I USUALLY POST MY BETS THERE.

Here are some of my past bets, you can also go through this thread to find more recent bets.

These are FULL bets on everything since I've created the group. (Ignore the occasional mlb/tennis bets) Reason why they're in there is so I show all bets placed without cutting it off so you guys can see the winning streaks.

Just had a couple questions in regards to this!

1. When buying in, is there any guarantee that you'll at least be running this for say another month and not stopping like a week later?
2. Are your picks live or pre-game?

I like the fact this is a one time fee rather than something monthly so you're not always betting to try pay off that monthly fee + trying to profit at the same time.

I wanna say he had a guarantee but not that it matter as long as you don't bet crazy you should make it back in. a week.

This is still available, I don't post too often but these are the results when I do post :)

Keep in mind this is a one time payment access, not monthly so you'll have plenty to profit from.

'Fox - October 17, 2017, 10:26 pm

These are the bets from today and yesterday. Have only lost a single e-sport game these past two days :).

How often do you post picks?

It really depends. I go on and off with betting. But this is a one time payment, not a monthly sub like others.

throwaway5 - October 18, 2017, 11:07 am

I see. It would suck to buy today and then not get any picks for a week though.

You shouldn't be betting if you are impatient anyways.

There is around 20 picks posted the last 4 days.

iNuke - April 19, 2018, 2:41 pm

Would that be a good method to bet the same amount on each of your picks? Are customers still happy? I've been through the thread, and the last 5-7 pages are just questions or simple posts, no messages from previous customers. I would be happy to join, which is why I'm asking!

I don't recommend betting the same amount everytime. I include a risk level with each pick so you need to bet accordingly.

I postponed the group for a little bit, I just started posting picks again yesterday, but all previous members are still in the group.

Here are some results from yesterday for you to see yourself.

Thank you. How is your win rate lately? Still over 70%?

Also, is it a good season right now? I mean, do you think we will have several picks for the the following days/weeks or do you see a new postponing soon?

Do you have any recent vouches for your picks since you came back?

Also what is your ROI? Win % doesn't mean much at all when it comes too betting.
