Hi team will keep this brief.

Deal goes like this, I was helping to run this members shopify store for him.

Deal was I get 30% if conversion rate was above 1% and 50% if it was above 2% (it never hit 2% so I always was getting 30%) <https://i.gyazo.com/5b670cd499957d3ea4f1ddb011d7bf31.png>

not sure how to format it, ill just put all relevant info here and add shit if needed

True, I thought the user tried too get in to my site, but I don't think so anymore.

But I feel I offered him a fair price for the work he did, considering the email list of mine he has.

I dont know why they are scamming people when they can do job in online selling something and reselling more thing they can do it. but this is a point why we have a lot scammer answers is very easy because they didn't got that morality from their parents that preventing them from scamming.

i hope you getting back your money ;) if you need something pm me bro.
