Paid for this, 2 days have passed. Will be hoping to receive the Prime soon.

Now I've seen people taking advantage of fellow HF members and selling twitch prime accounts. This is incredibly stupid, considering you can get a Twitch Prime account for free in under 5 minutes.

1. Sign up on Amazon.com
2. Go to: <https://www.amazon.co.uk/gp/prime>
3. Sign up using either your OWN CC or a VCC.
4. Go to: https://www.amazon.com/gp/primecentral?i...ount_prime
5. Click on End Membership, End Membership again, then click on End.

(This means when it get's to the end of the month, your trial will be automatically cancelled)

6. Go to: <https://twitch.amazon.com/prime>
7. Link your Amazon & Twitch account.
8. Rinse & Repeat, I've got a bot that's created 50+ prime accounts.

Enjoy! Thumbsup

This is a simple trial method and you will have to replace yourself every month. This sales thread does not use the trial method and your account will stay Prime for LONGER than a month.

Actually it didn't kept the Prime for "LONGER" than a month, just 3 days :) Still waiting for the OP to resolve this situation.

If your email is not verified, you lose the Prime. That is most likely the solution. :)

Not trying to complain, but I sent you account when you posted in giveaways and never got a message back.

802.1X - July 7, 2017, 2:27 am

11 days after my account lost prime, OP hasn't reached me... neither through Discord, so... I don't think this is trustable anymore.

Rick Owens - July 10, 2017, 5:01 pm

Weeks have passed since I paid him, no prime delivered. Will be opening a scam report soon.

CheGuevara? - July 11, 2017, 1:26 pm

Seems like OP is gone and as much as I hate to say it; I believe that he will not come back.

Now this is just my words so don't take it for granted. Sorry to pass my thoughts but I believe this is the truth.
