Thread: The Start of my YouTube Journey

Mayski - June 17, 2017, 4:32 pm

I will update this forum when I've achieved certain accomplishments etc.

Hey HackForums,

I've decided to embark on a wonderful journey, one I call YouTube.

I've been on Youtube for God knows how long, since 2009? This time I'm going to be putting a lot of effort into my videos, trying my best to improve them as much as possible.

I will be uploading the hottest songs in hip hop and hope to build up a great audience.

Here's the first video that I've posted:

I'm going to be posting tracks similar to this genre, I hope that you discover new music that you and I both enjoy. I appreciate all feedback, subscribers, likes and comments that you give, it does mean a LOT.

If you have any tips please let me know, I love constructive criticism.
