Are you sports betting to make this profit? I have about $500 to invest and looking to find a new profitable opportunity.

Let the man spend his own earned money without it being a shame, every person has a different reality

His method is shoutouts, ewhoring, and gambling.

Lol so untrue. I dont do shoutouts LOL, i dont know where that came from or why you mentioned that. I ewhored when i was a kid, first started out in 2013-early 2015. And i only gambled this year in the NBA playoffs. Cmon now bro.

I only made a soft $4k-$6k this NBA playoffs, gambling just makes the game more fun, i never really did it for "profit", i just ended up winning.

All these earnings today were not from gambling because the NBA season is over

So, are you still making money? Said you'd hit 3k the next day, just curious how it's been going since.

I feel that and respect that. But why drop money on one person because you "hate" the other. If we're looking at stats and other comparable factors, boxing is Mayweathers game. He's probably going to play by points.
