Introduction

Joining Hackforums had been a relatively spontaneous event to be honest. I found the OG gamertag "Immigration" while playing Call of Duty: Ghosts. After talking to the guy he recommended that I join a different forum and pretty much told me "Don't join HF, it's shit and they're all dicks there". I went for a good couple of months I'd say and then I decided to sign up on HF too. I left my account and wasn't active for quite some time. After using the other forum for a good month I gained a ton of traction among the members and I started realizing how shitty the owner treated everyone; I pretty much posted a massive thread calling the owner and the admins out on their shit and telling all my buddies goodbye because I knew I would be banned afterwards. When I joined HF I am pretty sure I was neg repped pretty quickly by someone and I started to think that Immigration was true. I ignored it and kept chugging along. Everything started getting serious when I brought my assignment service to this forum.

Member Appreciation

zSerity: You were always a pretty cool dude to me, thanks for keeping me on my HW grind

Professor K: We didn't always get along; although, you're really cool to talk to and I am glad we are friends now.

Minimalist: You deserve to be a staff member. We haven't always seen eye-to-eye but you do your job well.

Omniscient: Thanks for putting up with my shit that I PM you occasionally.

Cameron: I appreciate you creating Torque, it is nice to have a group of car guys to keep in touch with.

Mr. Robot: You were one of the members to inspire me to stay active and keep grinding on here.

Funtela: You were the other member that inspired me to keep chugging along on HF.

Acosmism: It is very rare that I trust someone as much as I trust you.

Mr. Peanut: Thank you for making me trust JC, you're both chill now.

I apologize if I forgot anyone, this is my quick list that I gathered for now.

Overall Review

This forum has taught me a lot of shit. I have randomly stumbled across a person that lives just down the road from me and is dating a girl that I went to high school with. It's a small world really, and it is pretty cool to just hop on here and browse around reading all of the memes and trolls on here. I've had the ability to run a business on here and completely support myself financially without having to obtain a "real" job. I'm grateful to each and every one of you, even the scumbags that I don't like.

Nice feedback thread. I'm glad you decided to stick it out and give it another chance. Your homework service seems to be very successful.

I'm not the only one then, I once posted a thread about an incident in my city and a few hours later received a PM saying "Do you live around random business near my house and it freaked me the hell out but turns out that member just lives a few streets over from me. I don't even live in a big city, only like 90k max people here.

I live in a town with ~3k people. The member posted on a thread and I PMed him saying "Where does your girlfriend work?" He told me the store and I said oh, mine works there too and has the same protocol. We then asked each other which location, he said "I am in Eastern ____". I said "Me too, my girl works at XXXXXX store". Turns out his fucking girlfriend WORKS with my girlfriend and went to high school with us both. Small world.

Should have mentioned you in the OP. You assisted me with a bit of IRL shit. Appreciate that greatly.

Vouch for Romania, my friend used his homework service for an essay a while back. I'd like to use his service eventually since my friend had good experiences with him.

Nah the owner used to ban people if they recommended something that he didn't like in the Recommendations forum. He used to beg people for donations because he couldn't keep the site up he claimed. He was kind of a scumbag to his users so I just let everyone know.

Thank you all for the kind words regarding my thread!

Haha yeah, I know, dw. Many forum owners who know that their forum has no future tend to squeeze what's possible out of the forum.

Nevertheless, thanks for making a short feedback thread, your overall feedback is the best kind of feedback.
